b. the Management may take action as deemed fit in the transfer / deputation of an employee from one department to another.

c. Every employee under transfer shall forth-with report to the place of transfer after duly handing over the charge with all the files/correspondence.

23. Increments

a. Increments shall be sanctioned based on Annual Performance Appraisal with due recommendation of the Head of the Department and Head of the Institution. The date of joining to duty shall normally be the date on which the increment is sanctioned on an annual basis. However, if the date falls other than the 1st day of the month, the date of increment will be 1st day of the following month.

b. An increment shall be ordinarily drawn as matter of course unless it is withheld. An increment of an employee may be withheld by the competent authority if his/her conduct has not been good or his/her work has not been satisfactory. Before withholding an increment, the concerned employee shall be given a proper opportunity to be heard. In ordering the withholding of an increment, the withholding authority shall state the period for which it is withheld and whether the postponement shall have the effect of postponing future increments.

c. An employee who stagnates at the maximum of the time scales of pay applicable to the post held by him/her may be allowed one stagnation increment per year in the said scale of pay for a period of 5 years subject to rendering satisfactory record of service in the post held by him/her in the Institution. Such stagnation increment is not automatic but should be approved by the competent authority.

d. All duties in a post on a time scale of pay counts for increment in the time scale. The period of time spent on leave without pay and allowances does not count for increment.

e. Additional increments may be sanctioned to employees who have acquired qualifications higher than the present one at the discretion of the Trust.

f. When an employee working in the lower scale of pay is promoted or appointed at a higher post, such employee is eligible to draw the increment as per the original date of his or her increment. However, if the basic pay is fixed at the minimum stage of the higher post, then the increment will be granted on completion of 12 months from the date of appointment/promotion.

g. Sanction of increments depends on admissions, enrollment of students and fee revenue/financial situation of the college/Trust.

h. The annual increment date can be changed only if such a change is specifically mentioned in the order of promotion/revision in salary.

24. Hours of Work

a. Subject to any statutory provisions, the working hours as applicable to employees in the Institution shall be determined by the Institution, with one day weekly holiday, as determined hereunder with due approval of the Trust.

b. Every employee shall work during the period prescribed above with necessary lunch break.

c. More than one shift may be present in any department at the discretion of the Management. Notice showing the shift will be displayed on the notice board. If more than one shift is present, the employees are liable to be transferred from one shift to another.

25. Attendance

a. All employees shall be in attendance on the commencement of working hours till the close thereof.

b. Employees on shift duty / split hours / staggered hours shall work accordingly with corresponding rest intervals and weekly holidays.

c. An employee on shift duty shall continue to be so until the arrival of the relieving employee.

d. All duty allotments shall be made by the Trust / Head of the Institution keeping in mind demands of work therein.

e. If an employee attends to his duties late, not adhering to or violating scheduled entry and exit timings of Institution without proper permission, a day's casual leave and in case no casual leave at credit, earned leave shall be deducted for 3 such days of late attendance. If there is no earned leave to the credit of the employee, one day's salary may be deducted for such late attendance and early exits.

Subject to the grant of leave being determined by the exigencies of work, employees are eligible for the following types of leave:

a. Casual Leave
b. Earned Leave
c. Maternity Leave
d. Study Leave

28. General

a. No leave can be claimed as a matter of right by any employee. Discretion is reserved in the authority to grant leave, to refuse or to revoke grant of leave at any time according to exigencies of work. Leave can be availed only after getting it sanctioned.

b. Leave is earned by duty. Part-time employees are not entitled to any kind of leave. Contract employees are entitled to only 10 days casual leave for one calendar year subject to other conditions laid down in rules 29(a) to 29(d).

c. Any leave may generally be availed only after prior sanction from the competent authority, which may be revoked under exigencies. Where an employee is compelled to avail leave suddenly on account of sickness or unforeseen circumstances, such absence must be intimated within 24 hours followed by submission of a formal leave application.

d. An employee on leave and desirous of extension of the same shall do so at least 3 days before expiry of the leave sanctioned first. The extended leave must also have due approval before being availed.

e. An employee proceeding out of town on leave shall intimate the address for correspondence, if any, to enable the competent authority to communicate with him/her in case of need.

f. No leave or extension of leave shall be deemed to have been granted unless an order to that effect is passed and communicated to the employee concerned.

g. An employee may cancel whole or part of the leave applied and resume duty only after prior permission from the competent authority.

h. No employee who has submitted his/her letter of resignation will be permitted to avail any leave standing to his/her credit.

29. Casual Leave

a. All full-time employees, being vacation staff or otherwise are entitled to 10 days casual leave every year. Casual leave cannot be availed in excess of 7 days at a time inclusive of Sundays and general holidays.

b. Casual Leave cannot be combined with other kind of leave.

c. During the first year of service, an employee shall be granted casual leave in proportionate to the period of service at the rate of one day for every completed service of one month, subject to a maximum of 12 days for the first year.

d. If an employee is on casual leave and extends the leave by applying for other kinds of leave in continuation, the entire period of absence shall be treated as other kind of leave subject to admissibility, cancelling the casual leave already sanctioned.

30. Earned Leave

a. Earned leave in respect of periods spent on duty may be granted to an employee.

b. Earned leave is admissible to the employees as under:

i. 10 days every calendar year for vacation staff.

ii. 30 days every calendar year for non-vacation staff.

iii. In respect of vacation staff, earned leave shall be credited to the leave account after completion of 6 months service as follows:
I. 5 days on 30th June.

II. 5 days on 31st December every year.

c. Non-vacation staff shall be entitled to $2\frac{1}{2}$ days earned leave for every completed month of service. Leave shall be credited as follows:
   i. 15 days on 30th June.
   ii. 15 days on 31st December every year.

d. Vacation staff proceeding on earned leave should be on duty either on the last working day before vacation or on the reopening day, the absence on both days rendering the entire leave including vacation as unauthorized absence.

e. An employee on earned leave shall be entitled to full emoluments for the period of leave.

f. Earned leave shall not be taken for less than 3 days at a time. However, the employee shall give prior notice of at least 3 days before availing the leave.

g. Normally, earned leave shall not be sanctioned to an employee during his/her initial 12 months of service except in extraordinary cases that necessitates grant of such leave.

h. Earned leave can be accumulated to a total of 240 days and leave beyond 240 days shall automatically lapse.

I. The leave application in the prescribed format along with recommendation of the concerned Head of the Department shall be submitted at least one week in advance before proceeding on leave for sanctioning the Earned leave. An alternative arrangement shall be made by the concerned employee/HOD before seeking such leave. The Earned leave will be sanctioned for a minimum of 3 days and it will not be considered for one day/two days. The Earned leave should not be availed frequently and minimum gap between two earned leave shall be 3 months.
31. Maternity Leave

Maternity leave with full pay and allowances shall be granted to permanent married woman employees with an experience of two years and have completed the probation period satisfactorily in the college, for confinement subject to the following conditions:

a. A woman employee is entitled to avail 90 days full term maternity leave (inclusive pre-natal or post-natal leave), only twice during the entire service. Maternity leave is not admissible to married women having 2 or more living children. Certificate from Doctor/Hospital shall be submitted before granting the leave and discharge summary to be submitted on reporting to duty after availing the said leave.

b. Necessary entries may be made in the service register so as to ensure that maternity leave is not sanctioned more than twice in the entire service of a woman employee.

c. Maternity leave may be clubbed with other kinds of leave/vacation except casual leave. Any leave in excess of 90 days may be availed only with sanction of the Trust, duly supported by medical advice.

32. Paternity Leave:

Paternity Leave with full pay and allowances shall be granted to a married male who is a permanent employee, for a period of seven days, during confinement of his wife from the date of commencement. It shall not be admissible to the employee who has two or more living children. It cannot be merged with any kind of leave. Necessary certificate from the Doctor/Hospital shall be submitted for sanction of Paternity Leave.

33. Study Leave

The grant of study leave on full pay/partial pay/loss of pay to the permanent employee is at the entire discretion of the Trust and is subject to the following conditions:

a. The course of study taken by the employee shall be an advanced course offered by a university and the course has a relevance to the department where the employee is working and the course will be useful to the Institution. There should be an upgradation in qualification as required for academic purposes.

b. The maximum number of staff that can be deputed for higher studies shall not exceed 10% of the total teaching staff in a department.

c. The period of study leave for taking any course of study is equal to the minimum period required to complete the course of study successfully within stipulated period of the course (First Attempt).

d. When an employee is deputed for higher studies on loss of pay or on partial pay basis, then he may be permitted to adjust the leave at his credit prior to availing study leave. If however, he is deputed with full pay and allowance, then the entire period shall be treated as study leave with full pay. However, no earned leave will be accrued during this period.

e. The employee shall execute a bond on non-judicial stamp paper (as prescribed by the Government from time to time) to serve the Institution after returning from study leave for a period as prescribed in the norms of Quality Improvement Programme applicable to the Institution. On failure to rejoin or serve the Institution for the period prescribed, he/she shall refund the entire salary drawn during the period of study leave and as damage pay a sum equivalent to the amount drawn by the employee as leave salary during the study leave along with the interest at 10% per annum. That means the employee shall pay double the amount of leave salary drawn during the study period. In addition, he/she shall refund any fee or other payments made by the Management on his/her behalf. The Management has the discretion to increase/decrease or waive off full or part of the above compensation.

   If an employee is granted study leave without pay and allowances and if he/she fails to rejoin & serve the Institution for the prescribed period, he/she shall pay the damages as per the orders of study leave.

f. An employee availing study leave on full pay and allowances is eligible for the benefit of periodical increments accruing to him/her in the applicable scale of pay. If the employee is deputed on partial pay, then the incremental benefit shall be given with effect only from the date of rejoining duty.

34. Authorities competent to grant leave

The Head of the Institution is empowered to sanction casual leave, earned leave up to 15 days to the employees working in the Institution. The Trust will be the authority to sanction all other types of leave including Earned Leave beyond 15 days.

Leave in respect of Head of the Institution shall be sanctioned by the Trust. Leave availed in excess of 05 days by Head of the Departments/Professors should be intimated to the Trust. No permanent employee of the Trust may, while on leave, render service of any kind elsewhere. An employee on leave shall promptly rejoin duty upon expiry of the leave, overstaying being liable to loss of pay even though there may be adequate leave at credit. An employee on leave may be recalled if exigencies of work demand. An employee on leave on medical grounds shall furnish a fitness certificate upon return to work.
CHAPTER - IV

TRAVELING AND DAILY ALLOWANCES

35. Reimbursement of travel expenses including accommodation charges and daily allowances is as fixed by the Trust from time to time.

a. Daily allowance is granted while on travel to defray the cost of meals, refreshments, local conveyance and other incidental expenses. Therefore, these expenses are not separately reimbursed. However, in certain cases if any abnormal expenditure is incurred due to official exigencies under any of the Head, such expenditure can be reimbursed provided that such expenditure is claimed separately and is approved by the Trust.

b. When cost of meals and refreshments are included in the room rent of the hotel or included in the package (such as registration fees for a conference) or otherwise borne by the Institution, the entitlement to daily allowance will be restricted to 50% of the eligible sum. No daily allowance is admissible during the period when an employee goes on leave while on official itinerary.

c. All TA/DA bills of staff members shall be approved by the Head of the Institution. However, if any claim is not within the permitted guidelines, then the claim shall be forwarded to the Trust for approval.

 d. The Trust shall approve the following claims:
    I. Travel by the Head of the Institution.
    ii. Foreign travel of any staff.
    iii. Participation in international / national conferences, seminars, workshops etc.,

e. If the staff gets reimbursement of the expenditure by any other agency for the journey undertaken by them, partly or fully, the claim amount shall be reduced proportionate to the amount reimbursed by other agency.

f. Travel on academic work such as examination/valuation or any other work of the University or statutory bodies where traveling expenses are reimbursed by such bodies, shall not entitle the staff to claim reimbursement of such expenditure.

g. Each travel bill shall contain a brief tour report explaining the purpose for which the tour is undertaken.

h. All TA/DA claims shall be made in writing in the prescribed format within a maximum period of 7 days from the date of return from the journey.

36. Norms for deputation of staff to Professional conferences/Seminars/workshops

a. The consolidated annual budget provided for the college should be allocated to different departments depending upon the strength of the department. While doing so, provision should be made to send at least one member on deputation from each department. However, the deputation shall be permitted only if he/she presents a paper at the conference. Details of department-wise allocation should be sent to the Trust for information.

b. All those presenting papers in National / International conferences/seminars etc., should produce the papers for scrutiny by a committee consisting of at least 3 members headed by the Principal. The other 2 members will be Dean and Head of the Department. Once the committee approves the paper, the said proposal should be forwarded to the Trust for sanction.

c. Whenever there is more than one author for a particular paper from the institute, only one will be eligible for deputation from the Institution as an official delegate. However, others, if they so desire, may be permitted to attend the conference at their own cost.

d. Faculty members so deputed should submit a brief report of conference/seminar attended through the Head of the Department to the Principal. One copy of the same should be submitted to the Trust Office for records in their personnel files. They are also required to give a brief presentation of the deliberations of the conferences/seminars to the departmental staff for their benefit. A copy/copies of proceedings received at the conference should be handed over to the College Library.

e. Reimbursement of expenses will be made only on claims which are supported by vouchers, receipts etc., and a certificate of attendance after handing over the proceedings copy to the library.

   b. The punishment will be imposed only after giving reasonable opportunity to the employee to defend himself/herself by submitting an explanation either orally or in writing. Punishments under Rule 41(a) - 1 and 2 will be imposed only after conducting an Impartial Enquiry.
42. Disciplinary Procedure

a. An employee alleged of serious misconduct and against whom disciplinary action is proposed to be taken shall be given a charge-sheet by the Management, clearly setting out there-in, the circumstances and facts relating to the misconduct alleged, affording him an opportunity to submit explanation in writing, if any, within 7 days from the receipt of the said charge-sheet.

b. Such employee shall also be given an opportunity to answer the charges at the time of an enquiry before an Enquiry Officer to be appointed by the Management, the date and time of enquiry being fixed with sufficient notice to the employee concerned to prepare, explain or to produce any evidence he/she wishes to rely upon in his/her defense at the enquiry.

c. Any notice, order, charge-sheet or communication meant for the charge-sheeted employee shall be in English or Kannada. In case of an absentee employee, notice or any communication shall be sent to him/her by “Registered Post with Acknowledgment Due” / Email to his/her last known address. If the employee concerned refuses to accept any communication in connection with any disciplinary process when it is sought to be served on him/her, exhibition of such communication in a Notice Board of the Institution shall be deemed as sufficient service of the same to him/her.

d. If the employee concerned fails to appear before the Enquiry Officer at the appointed time and place without sufficient cause for his/her absence to the satisfaction of the Enquiry Officer, then the enquiry is liable to be held ex-parte.

e. During the enquiry, the employee shall be permitted to produce records, examine witnesses in his/her defense, peruse records produced in support of the allegations into and cross-examine witnesses examined against him/her.

f. The employee may be permitted to be assisted by his/her co-employee during enquiry, if he/she so desires in writing. But the employee shall not be permitted to take assistance from any legal practitioner.
g. If the employee makes in writing a voluntary and unconditional admission of his/her guilt regarding the charges at any stage of the disciplinary proceedings, no further enquiry would be necessary to be held or continued.

h. When the misconduct alleged is of serious nature, the Management may suspend the employee from duty pending disciplinary proceedings. During such period of suspension, the employee concerned shall not leave the station except with the written permission of the Management.

i. Where disciplinary proceedings against an employee is contemplated or is pending or where a case against an employee in respect of any criminal offense and in under police investigation or court trial, and the employer is satisfied that it is necessary to place the employee under suspension, by order in writing, suspend him/her with effect from such date as mentioned in the order.

j. An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this rule shall continue to remain in force until it is modified or revoked by the authority to do so.

k. If an employee is kept under suspension pending enquiry of the case, such employee shall be paid subsistence allowance as follows:

   k.1 Subsistence allowance equal to 50% of the salary (basic pay and dearness allowance) drawn immediately prior to the date of suspension, for the first 6 months after the date of suspension provided that where the period of suspension exceeds 6 months, the authority made or deemed to have made the order of suspension shall be competent to vary the amount of subsistence allowance for any period subsequent to the period of first 6 months as follows:

   I. The amount of subsistence allowance may be increased to an amount equal to 75% of the pay drawn immediately prior to the date of suspension, if in the opinion of the said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing, not directly attributable to the employee.

ii. The amount of subsistence allowance to be reduced to 25% if in the opinion of the said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged due to reasons to be recorded in writing, directly attributable to the employee.

l. If on conclusion of the enquiry, the employee has been found guilty of the charges framed against him/her and it is considered, after giving the employee concerned a reasonable opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed, that an order of dismissal or discharge or suspension or fine or stoppage of annual increment or reduction in rank would meet the ends of justice, the employer shall pass an order accordingly.

m. In case the order of dismissal or discharge is issued to an employee, he shall be deemed to have been absent for duty during the period of suspension and shall not be entitled for salary for such period, but the subsistence allowance paid to him shall not be recovered.

n. If the employee is imposed a penalty other than dismissal or discharge from service, the employee shall be paid for the period of suspension such proportion of his pay and allowances as the said authority in its discretion specify and where no such proportion is specified, the employee shall be entitled to subsistence allowance as admissible and the period of suspension shall count as duty unless the said authority has otherwise directed.

o. If, on conclusion of the enquiry, the employee has been found to be not guilty of any of the charges framed against him/her, he/she shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension and shall be entitled to the same salary as he/she would have received if he/she had not been under suspension, after deducting subsistence allowance paid to him/her for such period.

p. The payment of subsistence allowance under this standing order shall be subject to the employee concerned not taking up any employment during the period of suspension. While claiming subsistence allowance, the employee concerned shall certify in writing that he/she is not gainfully employed elsewhere during the period of suspension.

q. In awarding punishment under these rules, the Management shall take into account the gravity of the misconduct, the previous record, if any, of the employee and other extenuating or aggravating circumstances that may exist. A copy of the order passed by the Management shall be supplied to the employee concerned.

43. REDRESS OF EMPLOYEES AGAINST UNFAIR TREATMENT
